A Final Statement

This statement is hereby filed as a final statement to terminate our registration pursuant to Section 5.205 (a)(b)(c) of Part 5 of Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938 as amended.

The basis for termination of the registration

We, Osaka University, San Francisco Office has been engaged and is still engaged only in academic, scientific and educational activities in the United States as always reported in our past registration statement and supplemental statements since its establishment in September 1, 2004. As such, we believe the exemption of Section 613 (e) of Title 22-Foreign Relations agreeing to engage only in activities in furtherance of bona fide religious, scholastic, academic, or scientific pursuits or of the fine art²⁰) is applicable. We have decided to terminate our registration and to stop filing supplemental statements because of the exemption available for our activities in the United States.

Exhibit C

The Osaka University, San Francisco Office is an overseas university office representing, and wholly supported by Osaka University in Osaka, Japan. The Osaka University, San Francisco Office was established in the United States in May 2004 with the following proposed activities:

- I) establish English learning programs of students in Osaka University
- II) implement and manage a distance learning program for students of Osaka University
- III) organize and maintain a network for alumni of Osaka University in North America
- IV) organize foreign exchange programs for students of Osaka University in the U.S. and U.S. students at Osaka University
- V) support researchers of Osaka University who are in the U.S.
- VI) coordinate training of Osaka University staff in the U.S.

There has been no change to the above-listed activities to date.

Regarding a charter, articles of incorporation, association, and/or by laws for the Osaka University, San Francisco Office, there is no such documentation in existence to date. That is to say, this organization was established through the oral consent of Osaka University's president and it's council members, the council being comprised of deans representing every department at Osaka University in Japan. At the present time, guidelines are being deliberated for eventual documentation along the lines of an organizational charter. Once accomplished, we will forward document copy(ies) to you.
